

Funded by
the European Union

Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degrees 2025: Kyrgyz Student Participation Overview

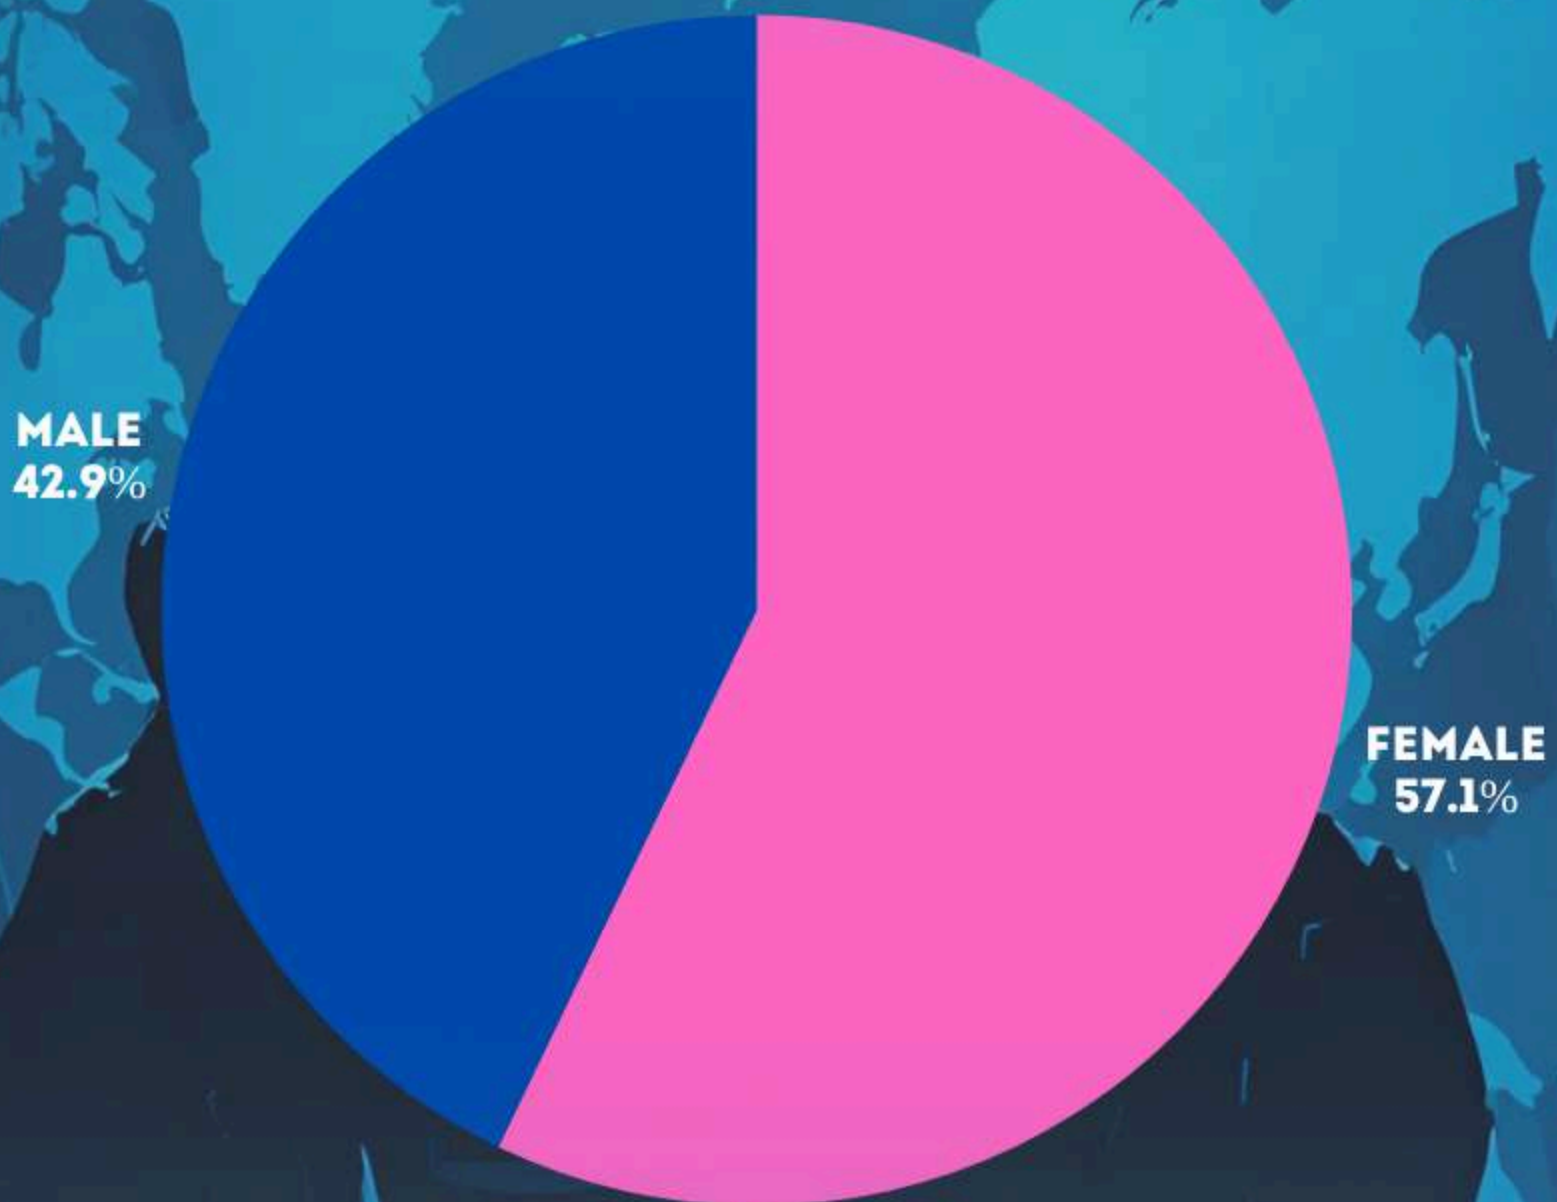

Funded by
the European Union

Gender Distribution of students

The majority of this year's cohort are women, with female students making up 57.1% of the group.

Female: 4 students (57.1%)

Male: 3 students (42.9%)

Funded by
the European Union

Scholarship Status

Scholarship holders (main or targeted region):

4 students (57.1%)

- Main: 3
- Targeted region: 1

Non-scholarship holders: 3 students (42.9%)

Funded by
the European Union

Fields of Study

MECHATRONICS

CYBERSECURITY

ARTS IN EUROPEAN FILM HERITAGE, HISTORY AND CULTURES

REDESIGNING THE POST-INDUSTRIAL CITY

MIGRATION AND INTERCULTURAL RELATIONS

SUSTAINABLE BIOMASS AND BIOPRODUCTS ENGINEERING

PSYCHOLOGY OF GLOBAL MOBILITY, INCLUSION AND DIVERSITY IN SOCIETY

0.0 0.2 0.4 0.6 0.8 1.0

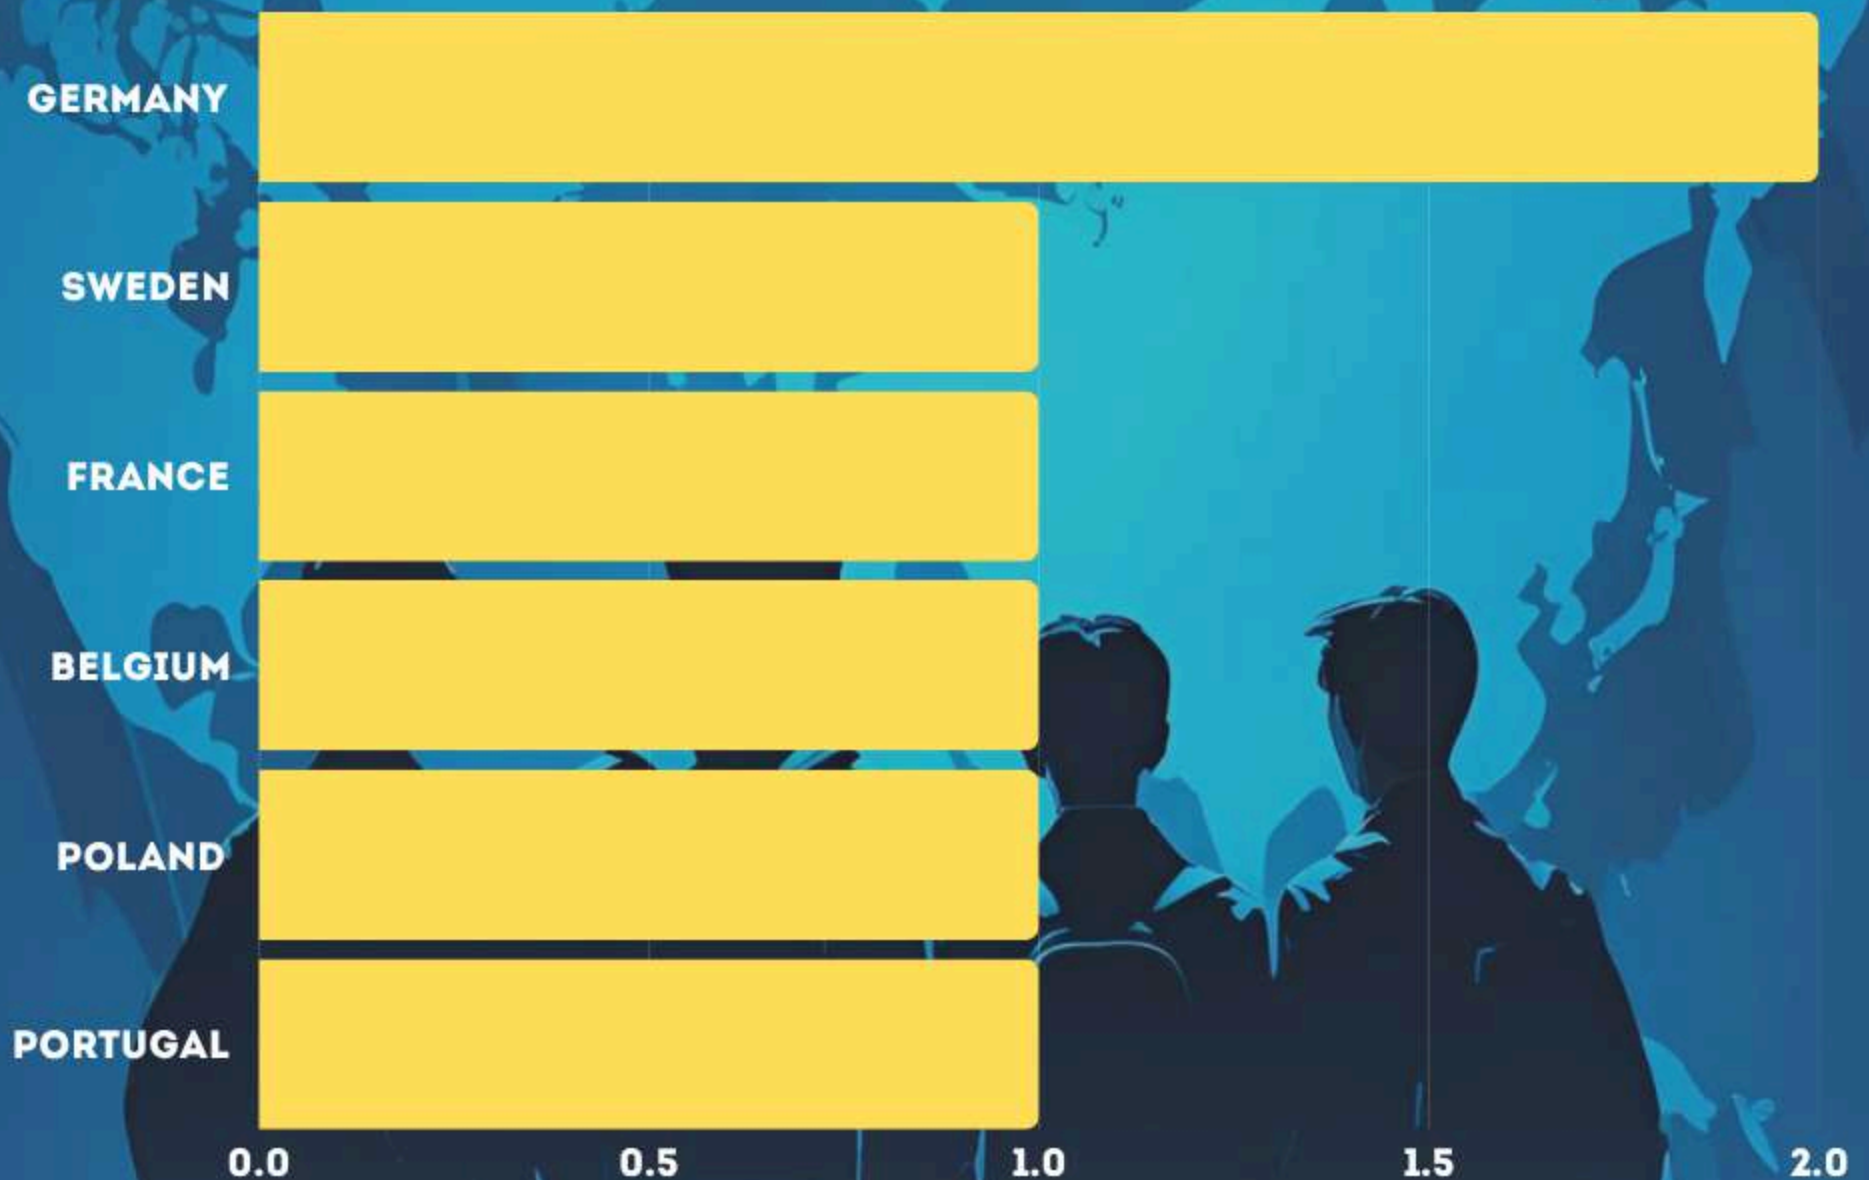

- Engineering & Technology (e.g., Mechatronics, Cybersecurity, Bioproducts): 3
- Social Sciences & Humanities (e.g., Migration, Psychology, Urban Studies): 3
- Arts & Culture (e.g., Film Heritage): 1

Funded by
the European Union

Host Countries (First Host Institution)

Host universities are located in six different countries:

- Germany: 2 students
- France, Sweden, Belgium, Poland, Portugal: 1 student each

Funded by
the European Union

Origin Institutions

American University of Central Asia: 2 students

Kyrgyz State Technical
University: 1 student

University of Central Asia: 1 student

Kyrgyz National
University: 1 student

University of Debrecen
(Hungary): 1 student

Wesleyan University
(USA): 1 student