PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

Objectives

Creation of an inclusive education program at a higher educational institution.

Today, 3 percent of the population of Kyrgyzstan are citizens with disabilities.

Currently, it is urgent in our country to create conditions for them to study and get education without obstacles.

Educational programs in higher educational institutions must operate in accordance with the educational policy of the state.

Therefore, it is important to prepare educational programs that facilitate the study of students with special educational needs.

Activities

Together with the partner universities to elaborate educational programs in the field of social work (undergraduate and graduate departments) with an inclusive approach.

(Software engineering, IT - technology, English language)

- To conduct education (training) on raising the awareness of disability awareness of the University's PPS and employees

-To introduce of modern teaching methods with elements of distance learning

- To disseminate information about project results to other universities of Kyrgyzstan and foreign countries.

Results

- Education programs in the field of social work (undergraduate and graduate departments) have been prepared with an inclusive approach.
